On Nov 25 every year, the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women, and the 16 days of activism that follow it, help to draw the world's attention to the scourge of intimate partner violence and other forms of gender-based violence and their harmful effects on women's health, families, and communities.

Intimate partner violence and HIV: clearing up confusion

Acid throwing, also called an acid attack, a vitriol attack or vitriolage, is a form of violent assault defined as the act of throwing acid or a similarly corrosive substance onto the body of another "with the intention to disfigure, maim, torture, or kill". Perpetrators of these attacks throw corrosive liquids at their victims, usually at their faces, burning them, and damaging skin tissue ...

Transphobia is a range of negative attitudes, feelings or actions toward transgender or transsexual people, or toward transsexuality. Transphobia can be emotional disgust, fear, violence, anger, or discomfort felt or expressed towards people who do not conform to society's gender expectation. It is often expressed alongside homophobic views and hence is often considered an aspect of homophobia.
